

CVM Research Day (formally Phi Zeta Research Day) will take place Friday, May 5th. The purpose of the day is to promote scholarly activity within the College of Veterinary Medicine.

In addition to a poster session in Adam's Conference Center and presentations throughout the college, Phi Zeta is pleased to announce Dr. Emily Pieracci, a veterinary epidemiologist in the CDC division of High Consequence Pathogens and Pathology, as our keynote speaker in the Vet Med Auditorium at noon, May 5th.