

1. Hanna Albright: Hanna is a terrific technician in the Bacti section, getting her tasks done efficiently and precisely no matter the caseload and always willing to take on additional tasks. - Tamara Gull
2. Josh Hardesty: Josh is an invaluable resource to the Bacti section and has taken on the lion's share of the Contagious Equine Metritis testing procedures. This task requires him to be individually certified by the NVSL and to maintain yearly proficiency above and beyond his day-to-day tasks. - Tamara Gull
3. Jesse Bowman: Jesse took time out of his schedule this month to attend AAVLD audit training, increasing the VMDL's visibility and participation in our national-level accrediting agency as well as advancing his clinical training. - Tamara Gull
4. Henda Nabli: Henda is a kind, compassionate person, that demonstrates exceptional leadership, dedication and a commitment to the success of her team. Henda is very approachable and always has a positive attitude. I am grateful that Henda is part of the Disco Ridge CVM team. - Anonymous
4. Rowena Woode: Dr. Woode goes above and beyond in each of the VM1 classes to ensure that whatever she is teaching is enjoyable to learn about but also taught effectively. If she does not know the answer to a question, she spends time researching it and ensures that the class receives an accurate answer rather than just saying "I don't know" and leaving it at that. She is always kind and makes everyone's day. - Makayla Hall
5. Morgan McDonald: Morgan McDonald, you will find, is always courteous and kind. And silly questions? Never mind, she'll answer just the same! She's witty and she gets things done! And I will speak for everyone, Morgan is second to none! (sorry - this rhyme was lame) - Anonymous
6. Lauren Ellis: Lauren has excelled as a technician in both the OHL and PCR laboratories. Her hard work, determination, and dedication are evident in everything she does. She consistently brings a positive attitude to both labs and goes above and beyond her duties without ever complaining. Thank you, Lauren, for all your incredible efforts! - Anonymous
7. Bailey Crouch: Bailey has worked at the Large Animal Front Desk alongside Team Therio for nearly a year! She catches on quickly to new tasks and the clients love working with her. She knows what clients need and advocates for them and also for the team she works with daily! Bailey has been cross training herself on Medical Records to help back up Matt and free up some of his time and schedule. When she is out, it is felt by everyone! - Anonymous
8. Tiffany Sanford-Martens: Helped me get back on track - Hunter Barber
9. Dr. Jerry Toporis: Every time I'm on call for clin path and I need to go in, he's the kindest doctor I've worked with. Even our first day meeting each other, he was so genuine and I could tell he knew I was stressed. All the clinical pathology student techs love to work with him. If you've never met Jerry you're missing out. - Victoria Rodriguez
10. Nancy Brown: Nancy has worked at the MU Equine Clinic / Large Animal Front Desk for a year and a half. She enjoys the challenges and learning that comes with the job. She has a good attitude with the clients and enjoys helping them in times of need! She is a great team player within the Large Animal Front Desk and also helps to bring order to the Equine Clinic daily just by being herself! - Anonymous
11. Joni Bohn: Joni works her butt off every day and remains so pleasant despite the stress and being constantly pulled in multiple directions. She's a lovely human being who wants to do the best for the patients in this hospital, and she manages to juggle providing proper care for our equipment and managing requests from numerous services with grace. - Anonymous

12. Matt Humphreys: Matt has been going above and beyond as he is cross training himself in Large Animal Billing, working with large farm accounts, doing insurance requests for Equine Patients, providing back up on phone calls all while doing his regular job of Large Animal Medical Records. He looks for ways to streamline his daily process to make it all run more efficiently. The Large Animal Front Office wouldn't function without you! - Anonymous

13. Jess Bowman: Friendly, reliable, efficient and always Ready to help, very knowledgeable in his Field. - Irene

14. Danielle Burkholder: Danielle has been working alongside the Food Animal section to improve and help streamline their communications with the Front Desk and with clients. She has a strong desire to advocate for clients and their animals when they are in need while following the hospital policy. She has been working on cross training to help provide backup to the Equine Clinic and the Therio Clinic as busy season is fast approaching. She has a great attitude everyday and is very pleasant to work with! The Large Animal Front Desk would struggle if she wasn't working here! - Anonymous

15. Marion Butcher: Marion is my stalwart Salmonella expert, handling the constant (and sometimes overwhelming) numbers of cultures efficiently and correctly and often before anyone else is even in the lab! - Tamara Gull

16. Jerry Toporis: Jerry is enthusiastic and energetic day in & out which makes each shift go by in twice the time. If you. I always look forward to each shift I have on call with him! - Anonymous

17. Ashley Hatton: Ashley is a receptionist in the UMC VHC and has been amazing. She has been doing a lot of the job by herself and has been great. She's always been so helpful and on top of things that it feels like she's been here a longer than she has. - Anonymous

18. Priscilla Foster: Priscilla works extremely hard to keep our OR's running smoothly. She does so many "silent" tasks like ordering specialty supplies, troubleshooting supply shortages and ensuring that all of our packs are put together correctly. She knows the OR in and out and is always willing to go the extra mile to help out. The OR couldn't run without her! - Anonymous

19. Taylor Ivy: Taylor has been a wonderful addition to the equine service. She is highly intelligent, quick learner and has a great personality. We are fortunate to have her! - Lynn Martin
