| |
|---|
| 1. Payton Oswald: Payton has the best attitude at work and brings so much joy and positivity to the office. He works really hard to make sure everyone feels seen. His attention to detail and multidisciplinary skills makes him an awesome coworker! - Anonymous |
| 2. Izak Barnes: Izak is calm and supportive to our work in the equine hospital. He has a positive attitude and is a problem-solver. Thank you for your work. - Anonymous |
| 3. Rebecca Dorfmeyer: Becky is Pawsome. She works hard and deals with a lot of $h*8t! - Anonymous |
| 4. Waleed Atout: Waleed is super busy but always willing to help and quick to answer questions and keep projects moving forward. Thank you!- Anonymous |
| 5. Aaron Gee: Aaron went above and beyond this month filling orders and implementing new strategies!- Anonymous |
| 6. Alee Koetting: Alee is a great addition to the team and is always willing to help out when needed!- Anonymous |
| 7. Josephine Dornbusch: Amazing compassion towards patients and owners alike.- Anonymous |
| 8. Rose Leykamp: Very knowledgeable and helpful!- Anonymous |
| 9. Alee Koetting: Alee is a hard worker and an even better colleague. She's a quick learner and always brings some good energy around. Keep being pawsome! - Anonymous |
| 10. Josh Hardesty: Because he is also consistently awesome and shoulders additional responsibilities without complaint when necessary.- Tamara Gull |
| 11. Marion Butcher: Marion is awesome at handling all our Salmonella cultures and keeps track of all the details!- Tamara Gull |
| 12. Estela Kobashigawa: I'm nominating Estela because she has been extremely instrumental in my training, comfortability, she is super welcoming and even more important she has the patience of an goddess lol. i have watched Estela perform multiple task for different sections and yet still finds time to help me, train me and help fix whatever mistake i may have made.- Anonymous |
| 13. Josie Dornbusch: Absolutely goes above and beyond what is asked of her. She is kind, understanding, and patient with students who want to learn.- Anonymous |
| 14. Cassidy Wells: Cassidy goes above and beyond to keep the equine facility stocked and cleaned. Going into our busy season, she has been invaluable to the tech/assistant team by doing these behind the scenes things. - Anonymous |
| 15. Mary McFillen : Mary goes above and beyond daily from making sure things get done with patients, making and improving documents, and client communications. She takes her job very seriously and makes sure everyone and everything is ok. She supports an amazing learning environment for our students. She is a vital part of our service, and I appreciate all she does. - Anonymous |
| 16. Hanna Albright: Hanna is another consistently awesome staff member who we will miss very much when she goes to grad school!- Tamara Gull |
| 17. Mary McFillen : Mary goes the extra mile for her peers, patints, clients, and section. She is a great coworker who is very knowledgeable and helpful! - Anonymous |
| 18. Jesse Bowman: Because he is consistently awesome running the Bacteriology lab!- Tamara Gull |
| 19. Abby Fitzsimmons: In addition to the usual amazing job Abby does, she has gone above and beyond in helping with SOP revisions recently. Great work and thanks a bunch, Abby!- Angela Royal |
| 20. Irene Ganjam: Irene steps up and handles weekend duties on a regular basis and helps us keep the lab running 365 days a year!- Tamara Gull |
| 21. Lauren Ellis: Lauren excels at managing her time between the OHL and the Molecular lab. She demonstrates unwavering hard work, dedication, and drive. With a cheerful demeanor and a consistently positive attitude, Lauren approaches every task with a smile. It's an absolute pleasure to work with her.- Anonymous |
| 22. George Paige: A hard worker who always has a friendly hello and interesting story to share. He arrives way before sunrise and keeps our building looking great.- Anonymous |
| 23. Moe (Ecc worker): She is a shining light in that ER! Always happy, so cheerful and helpful. Makes you feel right at home and is a pleasure to have teaching you when you're learning all the ropes. - Brenda |